

TIM WANNER

DIRECTOR OF SALES + HOSPITALITY

With a background spanning fine dining operations, beverage curation, and global wine importing, Tim Wanner brings more than two decades of industry expertise to his role as Director of Sales & Hospitality at Presqu'ile Winery in Santa Maria, California. Since joining the team in 2019, Tim has been instrumental in expanding Presqu'ile's wholesale footprint across key markets, aligning with sommeliers and partners who share a thoughtful, intentional approach to wine.

Under his leadership, the estate has grown into a destination known as much for its elevated culinary programming—featuring seasonal tasting menus, guest chef dinners, and concerts—as for its cool-climate, site-driven wines. Drawing from past roles at The Kitchen restaurant group and his experience building a boutique European wine import business, Tim infuses both rigor and warmth into the Presqu'ile experience.

Originally from Minnesota, Tim resides on the Central Coast with his family. A former semi-pro mountain biker and lifelong surfer, he brings a spirit of curiosity and movement to everything he touches.
